

Niccolò Machiavelli

Niccolò Machiavelli

Born: May 3, 1469

Birthplace: Florence, Italy

Death: June 21, 1527

Niccolò Machiavelli was born on May 3, 1469 in Florence, Italy and died on June 21, 1527 also in Florence. He was a politician, diplomat, historian, humanist and writer. He also focused on political philosophy. In his work "The Prince" he deals with education of the leaders and issue of leadership. A number of his considerations have the timeless validity.

Related terms and methods:

- » Leadership & Communicating
- » Changes

Related management field:

- » Change Management