

Labor

Labor is a term indicating purposeful, efficient and useful human activity that with the help of other factors of production (or material resources, information and knowledge) produces products (goods or services). Division of labor in an organization is one of the basic management functions.

Related terms and methods:

- › Effectiveness
- › Efficiency
- › Goods
- › Services

Related management field:

- › Organizing