

Stakeholders

Stakeholders are individuals, groups or other organizations somehow tied with an organization. Usually include:

- › Consumers
- › Employees
- › Management
- › Owners
- › Suppliers
- › Public sector

Furthermore the stakeholders can include:

- › Creditors
- › Partners (cooperating companies)
- › Surrounding companies (CSR - Corporate Social Responsibility)

Stakeholders of the organization can be divided into:

- › Internal – staff, management, owners directly involved in the management of the organization
- › External – customers, owners directly not involved in the management of the organization, suppliers, creditors, partners, surrounding companies – they are a part of surroundings of the organization

Related terms and methods:

- › Management