So best tour timing as per our experience is from 9 am to 7 pm. Later after 7, you can either plan a dinner anywhere in Jaipur, or head back to your hotel.

Aamer's Fort: Let us start your visit to Jaipur from the Fort of Amer, which is one of the famous tourist sites of Jaipur. It would be good for you to visit this fort early in the morning, before the crowd of tourists can grow here.

This impressive fort is situated on the top of the mountain, which is built in Rajput and Hindu architectural style. Within the fort are some of the main attractions that you do not forget to look at; Diwan-i-Aam, Diwan-e-Khas, Sukh Niwas and Sheesh Mahal.

City Palace: After Ammer Fort and its castle walks forward, towards the City Palace. This unique architectural style has a huge courtyard, many palaces, museums, galleries and many spectacular wonders like Mubarak Mahal and Chandra Mahal. It is also the flagship Landmark of Jaipur. If you look Car rental in Jaipur for Jaipur Sightseeing, then visit given link as well as check Jaipur Tour Packages in Jaipur.

Hawa Mahal: Hawa Mahal is another major attraction of Jaipur which is also close to the City Palace. Hawa Mahal, a wonderful unique five-storey building with lined windows on each floor. The number of these windows is approximately 953.

This palace was built for the ladies of the royal family, so that they could stay inside the palace and get acquainted with the windows of these windows from the outside world.

This 50 feet high structure is one of the architectural wonders of Jaipur. Inside the palace, the complex workmanship and the wonderful style of flowers, thin walls make this palace an amazing form of its kind.

Jantar Mantar: Jantar Mantar is an astronomical observatory with masonry equipment. It is the world's largest stone-built observatory.

There are 14 geometric structures of large stones in Jantar Mantar, which are used as measuring instruments, measuring the position of sun, moon and stars.

These compositions help to observe the fascinating Indian rulers who rule in history. This place full of information is an interesting place for those interested in science, art and astronomy.

Nahargarh Fort: In this one-day visit, do not forget to visit the fort at Nahargarh in the evening, where you will be the most beautiful sunset sight. With its picturesque backdrop located at the summit of the Aravalli hills, this huge fort creates a panoramic view.

Chokki Dhani: At the end of your one-day visit to Jaipur, go to the long drive on the long drive. This is a cultural village where you will find the traditional game of Jaipur and many famous events, as well as the real pure Rajasthani dishes which will make your visit to this one-day visit to Jaipur memorable and complete.
